Yu Miao Newsletter

June 1, 2011

Dear Parents,

Time flies, summer has come and it is graduation time! In just 2 more weeks, it will be the end of the 2010-2011. We are both happy and sad at this time of the school year. It is very satisfying to see the progress of our children learned Mandarin, self management and developed their cognitive and social skills, but on the other hand, we will dearly miss our graduates as they will leave us for kindergarten.

The Yu Miao Annual Open House on May 21st had a very good turnout. Almost 160 adults and kids came and enjoyed the event. Most of them were new families. We have to thank all of you for your support to our Yu Miao Preschool.

To add more fun to the last week of our school life, the coming June 2nd (Thu.) will be our annual Pajamas Day, Please have your kids wear pajamas on that day but have suitable shoes for the playground. Guess what the teachers will wear?

This year our 12th Graduation Ceremony will be held in the Big Gym of our school on June 16th (Thursday). There will be no child care that afternoon after the graduation ceremony. Similar to what we did last year, all P1 and P2 students will participate at the event. They will have wonderful performances on that day, so invite your friends and family over to have fun with us. This year, the ceremony will be held from 10 a.m. to 12:00 noon followed by a Chinese buffet. The cost for lunch is $4.00 per person, and there will be no cost for those who are under three years old. In order to have better coordination, we need to have number of participants a week before, please make payment by Friday, June 10. For this upcoming event, we can use some volunteers and need your help in food arrangement, decorating, clean-up, take photographs and recording the program. There are some volunteer sign-up sheets posted on the bulletin board close to the entrance of our preschool. Please sign up before June 10. If you have any questions, do not hesitate to let us know.

The ceremony schedule will be distributed for your reference very soon. Please let the children wear a Chinese outfit on that day and the graduates should bring along their gowns and caps. The ceremony will begin at 10 am. P2 Parents need to help your kids return the gowns after the ceremony and pick up the graduation gifts. Please try to take off from work if you can so that you won't miss this memorable moment. Be sure to bring your camera to capture some good pictures of your child.

For those who are joining our Yu Miao Summer Cultural Camp, a camp letter will be sent to you a week before the camp begins. We look forward to meeting both old and new students in the camp and have fun with all of you.

Last but not least, we wish every one of you a happy and safe summer and we will meet those who are coming back on September 1st (Thurs.) evening for the parents' orientation meeting of the next school year (2011-2012).

Yours Sincerely,

Terry
